From Futility to Fruitfulness

Ephesians 4:17-21

Series: Holy Living for a Holy People - #3

1. "As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life _____ of the calling you have received." (Ephesians 4:1, NIV84)
2. We either live our lives according to the ways of this _____ or the ways of _____.
3. Those who live according to this world system are _____ from the life of God. (v.18)
 - Those who are separated from the life of God are _____ in their sins and transgressions.
 - Those who are spiritually dead are _____ to, recognize, or accept the truth of God's word.
 - Every single one of us either was, or is, spiritually dead. Spiritual life is only the result of _____.
4. The root cause of this separation is the ignorance brought about by the _____ of the heart. (v.18)
 - Evidence of God's existence is plain to see in all of creation. Therefore, if we remain in ignorance, we are without _____.
 - A hardened heart is one that is _____ to the truth, insensitive of the reality of its condition, and _____ by sin.

5. A hardened heart has lost all _____ to the things of God.

- This insensitivity leads people to give in to, and indulge in, all kinds of _____ with a continual _____ for more.
- This means that the thoughts and desires of their hearts are moving in _____ to the things of God.
- Living in such a way is _____. Ultimately it is a purposeless, _____, and empty, way of doing life. (v.17)

6. So how do we move from futility to _____?

- First we must receive new life. Bringing the spiritually dead to life is a work that is only possible _____ to do.
- God saves us by His _____ as He makes us alive in _____ even while we are still dead in our sins and transgressions.
- Faith is awakened in us as we _____ the Word of God.
- In this process God removes our "heart of _____" and gives us a "heart of flesh" that _____ to Him.
- As we begin to respond to God's word we are being " _____ by the renewing of our minds."
- Only as this happens can we live a life _____ of the calling we have received. That's why Paul _____ that we must no longer live as we once did.

For Reflection:

- Am I living a life worthy of the calling I have received? If not, why not?
- What of the former nature must I put off in order to put on the new nature?
- Have I truly been saved by God's grace? If not, what must I do?
