"And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ."

COLOSSIANS 3:23-24

The story is told of an old man who lived on a farm in the mountains of eastern Kentucky with his young grandson. Each morning, Grandpa was up early sitting at the kitchen table reading from his old worn-out Bible. His grandson who wanted to be just like him tried to imitate him in any way he could.

One day the grandson asked, “Papa, I try to read the Bible just like you but I don’t understand it, and what I do understand I forget as soon as I close the book. What good does reading the Bible do?”

The Grandfather quietly turned from putting coal in the stove and said, “Take this coal basket down to the river and bring back a basket of water.”

The boy did as he was told, even though all the water leaked out before he could get back to the house. The grandfather laughed and said, “You will have to move a little faster next time,” and sent him back to the river with the basket to try again. (Con’t inside)

(Con't) This time the boy ran faster, but again the basket was empty before he returned home. Out of breath, he told his grandfather that it was "impossible to carry water in a basket," and he went to get a bucket instead. The old man said, "I don't want a bucket of water; I want a basket of water. You can do this. You're just not trying hard enough," and he went out the door to watch the boy try again.

At this point, the boy knew it was impossible, but he wanted to show his grandfather that even if he ran as fast as he could, the water would leak out before he got far at all. The boy scooped the water and ran hard, but when he reached his grandfather the basket was again empty. Out of breath, he said, "See Papa, it's useless!"

"So you think it is useless?" The old man said, "Look at the basket." The boy looked at the basket and for the first time he realized that the basket looked different. Instead of a dirty old coal basket, it was clean. "Son, that's what happens when you read the Bible. You might not understand or remember everything, but when you read it, it will change you from the inside out. That is the work of God in our lives. To change us from the inside out and to slowly transform us into the image of His son. Take time to read a portion of God's word each day.

Volunteer with us year-round

While shoebox packing and collecting is finished until next fall, the work of Operation Christmas Child is far from completed. We work year-round to ensure shoeboxes—and the Good News of Jesus Christ—are delivered to children worldwide.

Volunteering year round with Operation Christmas Child is a hands-on way to reach many children with the Good News and Great Joy of Jesus.

Every gift-filled shoebox is a powerful tool for evangelism, discipleship, and multiplication—transforming the lives of children and their families through the Gospel.

From logistics to community relations, explore the many opportunities to use your God-given gifts to multiply your impact in the lives of children! Learn more at www.samaritanspurse.ca/volunteer-year-round

Please be advised: When you attend a public Parkside Gospel Church event or program, including Sunday morning service, photography, audio, and video recording may occur.
