Sermon Notes:

Radically Non-Conformist - Daniel 1:8-21

1. Technology has effectively made the world a much smaller place – we are living in a _____.
2. “Do not conform any longer to the _____ of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.” (Romans 12:2, NIV84)
3. “Put to _____, therefore, whatever belongs to your _____ nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry. Because of these, the wrath of God is coming.” (Ephesians 2:1)
4. “In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for noble purposes and some for ignoble. If a man cleanses himself from the latter, he will be an instrument for noble purposes, made holy, _____ to the Master and _____ to do any good work.” (2 Timothy 2:20–21, NIV84)
5. “Be _____ of God, therefore, as dearly loved children and live a life of _____, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.” (Ephesians 5:1–2, NIV84)
6. Daniel finds himself, much like Christians today, seeking to live a life faithful to God amidst a culture _____ in darkness.
7. “But Daniel _____ not to _____ himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.” (Daniel 1:8)
8. God had primarily established dietary laws for the Israelites, not for health reasons, but for _____ reasons.
9. “To eat that food in that situation represented a _____ compromise of everything Daniel believed.” (Dare to be a Daniel, Ray Pritchard)
10. Daniel was bold, and _____ to stand on his faith, and to stand for his God.
11. Peter urges us to live as “aliens and _____” in this world.
12. Our _____ is in heaven – that is our true home.
13. Some people choose to _____ to the world. To conform is “to behave or think in a socially _____ or expected way.” (Encarta Dictionary)
14. Other people will choose to _____ the truth in order to be less offensive to the world around them and to make the Gospel more appealing to the masses.
15. To compromise is to “accept standards that are _____ than is desirable” or to “bring into _____ or danger by indiscreet, foolish, or reckless behavior.” (Oxford Dictionaries)
16. However, we do not need to conform or compromise, but we can _____ to stand upon the truth as we let the Word of God _____ our worldview and the manner in which we live.
17. How do we live in such a way that we continue to stand upon the truth as _____ of Christ in a world which seeks to shape us into its own image?
18. Every time we _____ the clear teachings of God’s word, and _____ the world’s ways, we lose a little more of our ability to glorify God and to witness to others and we become a little less useable by God.
