This is Our Time

Psalm 91

Series: A Christian Response to the Coronavirus

1. We tend to _____ those things which we do not understand.
2. What we know ...
 - December 31, 2019 – Chinese officials report a cluster of _____ cases of unknown origin
 - January 20, 2020 – By this time virus has been designated at _____ and confirmed cases of this new infection had risen to nearly 6200
 - March 11, 2020 – The infection has spread to numerous countries and the World Health Organization officially classifies this as a _____.
3. By the numbers: As of the morning hours of March 14, 2020 ...
 - Confirmed Cases: 146,351
 - Deaths: 5,443
 - ◇ _____ of deaths have occurred in those 60+
 - ◇ In 75% of those deaths there have been _____ health issues that have likely contributed to the individual's passing
 - Those 19 and younger account for only 2.4% of confirmed cases worldwide
4. Not only do we fear what we do not understand but we also fear what _____ come to be.
5. We also fear those things that are beyond our ability to _____.
6. Psalm 91 encourages us with the promise of _____ even while the storm rages all around us.
7. This rest is based on the reality of our _____ with the Lord God Almighty.
8. We can turn to God in times of trouble and find _____ because we are in relationship with Him. This refuge is based in the very character of our God.
9. Verse 9 is an invitation to make the Most High your “_____” – the one in whom you put your trust, your faith, your hope.
10. The person who does so will find that the Lord is with them in times of trouble and they will see the _____ of the Lord.
11. We must keep in mind that our _____ is not of this world and that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.
12. What does any of this mean in practical terms when it comes to being salt and light in a world filled with trouble and fear?
13. Times such as we find ourselves in now, become _____ for the faithful to be as the hands and feet of Christ, to a world that is hurting and broken.
14. History reveals that the impact of such service is twofold:
 - The unbelieving world _____ an outpouring of love like they've never seen, and ...
 - Christian _____ on behalf of non-Christians resulted in survivors coming to Christ, and receiving salvation, in great numbers.
15. This is the time for the men and women of God to walk, not in fear, but in _____, not in selfishness, but in _____, not in apathy, but rather in a genuine _____ for our neighbors.

Please be advised: When you attend a public Parkside Gospel Church event or program, including Sunday morning service, photography, audio, and video recording may occur.
