Senior Pastor
Rev. Greg Alderton

Please note; access to the church sanctuary and activity centre are limited during this time. If you require access for any reason, please be in touch with Peter Schulz.

Tax receipts that were placed in mail boxes at the church will be picked up this week and mailed out.

Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.
2 Corinthians 9:7-8

Sermon Notes:
All That The Prophets Have Spoken
Luke 24:13-49
Series: Holy Happenings - #5

1. The inability of the two disciples to recognize Jesus was not a failure on their part but rather the _____ working of God. They were kept from recognizing the risen Christ - and we need to ask ourselves, “ _____?”
2. Jesus asked questions in order to get to the heart of the _____, to lay bare the _____ of those He is speaking with, and to expose the true _____ of a people’s hearts. Asking questions of those we seek to share the gospel with is an important part of the whole process for these same reasons.
3. The questions Jesus asks of these disciples lead to the discovery of a significant _____ in their understanding of the Scriptures and what they taught about the Messiah.
4. Because there was no room in their theology for a Messiah who would suffer and _____ to redeem His people, there was also no room for, or expectation of, a _____ of Jesus from the dead.
5. “ _____” simply means the “study of God.” Every Christian must be a theologian – one who studies and seeks to know the Creator of the heavens and the earth.
6. We want to get our theology right because what we _____ about God has a tremendous _____ on how we live our lives.
7. A theology which isn’t firmly _____ in the Scriptures has the potential to lead us astray, cause us to _____ what God is doing at any given time, and to shipwreck our faith.
8. Theology is important ... which means that diligently studying the _____ is important as well – because the _____ is the source for all those things which we can know about God.
9. In the _____ of properly understood truth, _____, unintentional though it may be, will fill the void.
10. Syncretism is the combining of different systems of _____, or _____, into one greater whole.
11. Syncretism may move forward in the hearts of mankind under the guise of tolerance, acceptance, love and human wisdom – but it is not God _____ and nor is it God _____.
12. It is the word of God which is living and active and able to make us wise for _____ through faith in Christ Jesus. (Hebrews 4:12 / 2 Timothy 3:15)
13. Perhaps the greatest danger to the church today, as it has been in all ages, is a people of God who do not _____, nor properly _____, what the Scriptures teach and who it is that they point us to.
14. “Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who _____ handles the word of _____.” (2 Timothy 2:15, NIV84)
15. For “All Scripture is God-_____ and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly _____ for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:16-17, NIV84)
