R3 – Revival, Remembrance and Rebellion Genesis 35

Series: Book of Beginnings - #39

1. The tragedy and sorrow of Shechem serves as a spiritual wakeup call for Jacob. In a similar way, when we have _____ from God, He may give us a wakeup call that we might _____ to Him.
2. The best place for us to be is in that place to which God has _____ us even though it may be dangerous, uncomfortable and unpredictable. It's here that we will see God at _____ most clearly.
3. Jacob fails in obedience but the good news for Jacob, and for us, is that God does not _____ us in our _____.
4. In light of God's grace, Jacob _____. To repent is to turn from our ways and our plans and embrace the ways and the will of God.
5. Jacob finally returns to Bethel (_____). This is where he first met God so many years earlier.
6. Jacob's family and people have been _____ and _____ the idols in their midst. "Those who cling to worthless idols forfeit the grace that could be theirs. (Jonah 2:8, NIV84)
7. The concept of worship is expressed by the term '_____.' (Harper's Bible Dictionary) We serve that which we worship and that which we worship becomes #1 in our lives.
8. Idols are not just figures carved of wood, or fashioned of gold, but they are anything that takes God's _____ in our lives or which we don't _____ God with.
9. As Jacob disposes of the idols in his midst he is experiencing _____. Revival brings a renewed passion for God and a desire to put off the things of the sin nature.
10. When we have sinned and rebelled against God we need to _____ both the God to whom we come and our identity in Christ.
11. _____ is the appropriate response to God's _____.
12. Jacob's life illustrates that faith filled obedience isn't a guarantee against _____ or _____.
13. The essence of sin is _____. In our pride and selfishness we rebel against God. Jesus came to _____ us from the penalty of sin and to reconcile us to God.
14. As we repent and turn back to God we receive the _____ of forgiveness, we are reminded of God's grace and love and mercy and of our own _____ in Christ.

For Reflection:

- 1) What idols can you identify in your life?
- 2) What would it look like to repent and to turn back to God?
- 3) What is holding you back from a faith filled obedience?
